Basar

- The abode of Goddess Saraswati

A temple dedicated to Saraswathi, the Goddess of learning is rare, and especially rare in South India. Basar is blessed to have a majestic Saraswathi temple, frequented by hundreds of devotees from all over India.

Situated on the banks of river Godavari, Basar is home to the Godavari Pushkaram, which will see throngs of devotees coming together to take a dip in the holy waters here.

Basar Railway Station, uniquely designed to showcase the architecture of the temple here, is privileged to act as the gateway to the pilgrim traffic visiting Basar for the Mahapushkaram.

Manchiryal

- Where devotional fervour abounds

Manchiryal, situated on the north banks of river Godavari is a thriving town, which is a confluence of the north and the south. Located on the grand trunk New Delhi - Chennai rail route, the town is known for being a commercial and industrial hub.

With the heavy influx of pilgrims expected to visit the place for a holy dip in the waters of river Godavari here, Manchiryal Railway Station has been spruced up with all special arrangements to ensure convenience for the rail users.

Godavari

- The name defines the place

Godavari, which is situated right on the banks of river Godavari, is a direct route to your final destination- the sacred waters.

Owing to its convenient access to the river, pilgrims visiting Rajahmundry also prefer to alight /depart from Godavari Railway station, particularly during the Godavari Pushkaram.

Chosen as one of the special stations by SCR, Godavari Railway station is all set to meet the needs and expectations of pilgrims for the major event.

Rajahmundry

- A city steeped in culture & history

Rajahmundry, by far the most well known city on the banks of river Godavari, holds a rich historical significance and is a popular tourist spot as well. A major pilgrimage site, Rajahmundry is a favourite destination for millions of pilgrims during the Godavari Pushkaram.

Rajahmundry railway station, located on the Chennai-Kolkata sector is amongst the major rail hubs of Indian Railways. Anticipating a huge surge of pilgrim traffic, all required special arrangements are in place at the railway station to make the rail users pushkaram journey, a pleasant experience too.
